GREENSBORO NEWS

Fine Quality of Iron Ore Comes from Wilson's Mill Mine.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GREENSBORO, N. C., January 30.—Mr. Irvin Donnell, living a few miles east of the city, has ore on his lands. Recently he brought a sample of it to Mr. Isaac Prosser, manager of the Empire Steel and Iron Company, in this place. Mr. Prosser says it is iron ore, but is so impregnated with titanium that it cannot be worked. He is having it analyzed, however, to be sure about it. The ore coming from Wilson's Mill, however, is very fine, and the Empire people are delighted. Not a trace of titanium is found in it, something rather strange. It is also turning out finely, taxing the furnace to handle it. The output was expected to be about fifty tons of iron a day, but it is making eighty right along.

During the Christmas holidays Jim Graves was knocked down and robbed of a dollar by George Johnson and a man named Will Thomas. All are colored. Johnson was yesterday afternoon sent on to the grand jury.

Mr. J. M. Baby to-day sent to the department at Washington his resignation as custodian of the United States government building in Greensboro. Baby will continue as a deputy in the office of United States Marshal J. M. Millikan here.

Mrs. Charles D. Thornton and children will leave tomorrow for Jacksonville, Fla., to spend a month, going from there to Columbia, S. C., where Mr. Thornton has a position as train dispatcher.

Rev. Dr. W. S. Rainford and sons, of New York, who have been spending several days on a hunting trip in this section, left last night for home.

At a called meeting of Orange Presbytery held yesterday afternoon the resignation of Mr. J. M. Millikan, of Stokes county, who has received a call from the Knoxville, Tenn. Presbytery, was accepted.

TARBORO DISPENSARY

House Committee Reports the Bill
Without Prejudice.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., January 30.—The House Committee on Propositions and Grievances decided to report the Tarboro dispensary bill without prejudice. It has passed the Senate, but Representatives Douglas and Shelton and Senator Gilliam are divided on the bill, hence the committee's action.

The Senate Committee on Railroads and Railroads Commission heard argument to-day on the Fuller bill, empowering the corporation commission to enforce the erection of union depots. Action as to favorable or unfavorable recommendations to the Senate was deferred until next Tuesday.

A magnificent reception by Governor and Mrs. Aycock, complimentary to the General Assembly, was given to-night at the Mansion. Governor and Mrs. Aycock and the State officers and their wives constituted the receiving party.

Fire at Hamlet.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HAMLET, N. C., January 30.—About 2 o'clock this morning fire broke out in a vacant house in the eastern part of the city—the part occupied mostly by negroes—and before it was under control one store and six dwellings were burned and another dwelling torn down to cinders.

J. B. Goodwin's dwelling and Mr. J. C. Cowan's store were saved through strenuous efforts of an impromptu bucket brigade.

Erecting New Building.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FAIRFAXVILLE, N. C., January 30.—Work will begin at once on the construction of two new double brick stone buildings, for occupancy by the Huxie Hardware Company and the Armfield Wholesale Grocery Company, on the large front lot on Hay Street, adjoining the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad crossing. The southern section of the lot is already occupied by the warehouses of the Huxie Hardware Company, with sidetrack to the railroad.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS.—The postoffice at Stephensville, Texas, was burglarized to-day, the robbers securing $50 in money and stamps. Five registered packages were also stolen.

OVERMAN IS ELECTED

Formal Ratification of Action of Democratic Caucus.

MARCH, 1903, TO MARCH, '09

Bills Offered in the Legislature—Great Flood of Petitions for and Against the Pending Bills Concerning the Whiskey Tariff.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 30.—At noon to-day there was the last act in the legislative drama in progress the past three weeks in selecting a United States Senator—the formal election of Lee S. Overman for the term from March 4, 1903, to March 8, 1909.

The Hall of Representatives was crowded and lobbies and galleries packed. Mr. George L. Morton, chairman of the Democratic caucus, nominated Lee S. Overman as "a man who would succeed the last vestige of radicalism that represented North Carolina in the national legislative halls."

"Six years ago in this Legislature," said the speaker, "one of the noblest of the State's sons was named for Senator, but was defeated by a combination of Republicans, Populists and turn-coats, but now he has come to his own, and the State no less than himself is honored at last by having a Senator who will worthily fill the highest position in her gift." (Great applause.)

There were seconding speeches by Norman W. Murphy, of Salisbury, and Hinton, of Pasquotank. Then a ballot was taken, Overman receiving 133 and Pritchard (Republican nominee and present Senator) 21 votes. When the vote was announced Senator Henderson moved to adjourn without a day, closing the 1903 North Carolina senatorial contest.

IN THE SENATE.
The Baldwin bill, allowing both husband and wife to re-marry in certain cases where either party obtains divorce without adultery, was taken up. Henderson had been accepted by Mr. Baldwin, abolishing abandonment as a cause for divorce after 1904. The bill ordered engrossed and sent to the Senate.

Notable bills introduced in the Senate were:

By Mr. Mann: To establish graded school at Swan Quarter.

A great number of petitions for and against pending bills concerning the whiskey tariff.

By Mr. Baldwin: To decrease the tax on merchants, coal dealers, retail collectors and auctioneers and increase the tax on emigration agents from $2 to $30 by amendment.

Eleven Senators were granted leaves of absence and President Turner expressed the hope a quorum would be left.

IN THE HOUSE.
In the House a great number of session and anti-saloon petitions were introduced.

Important bills offered were:

By Mr. Scott: Relating to oculists and opticians, providing State Board of Examiners, to establish graded schools.

By Mr. Graham: To authorize the incorporation of electric plants under the general law.

By Mr. Ottman: To prevent the selling or offering to sell votes.

Bills passed final reading were:

To amend act 1827, incorporating Grand Lodge of North Carolina, to amend the law providing for the restoration of estates to persons restored from lunacy by including insane persons.

After the joint session to elect United States Senator, Mr. Hinton introduced a bill to incorporate a Savings Bank and Trust Company of Elizabeth City; Mr. Wooten a bill to establish a graded school at Leverage; and Mr. Harrington a bill to incorporate the bank of Martin county.

FROM DURHAM.
Divorce Granted in Corporation Court to Mrs. Lelia Green Davis.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DURHAM, N. C., January 30.—Among the last orders Judge Allen made before adjourning court yesterday was the granting of a divorce to Mrs. Lelia Davis from her husband, Robert Davis.

Mr. Davis was an employee of one of our leading banks here, but has been in business elsewhere for some two years. The plaintiff in the case, when married to Davis, was the widow of the late Lucius Green, and before first marriage was a Miss Henley. Both parties are prominently connected.

In the case of Hinton against the Postal Telegraph Company the jury brought in a verdict of $1,000 for the plaintiff; the judge cut it to $500, and defendant appealed to the higher court.

Many Durham people went to Raleigh to-day to advocate the Fuller bill compelling the railroads to build a union depot here. Many more went to advocate the passage of the Leverage bill, regulating the whiskey traffic, practically a dispensary law. The liquor men have a good purse for their lawyers and lobbyists.

J. D. W. Rikeboe, who was run over by a Seaboard freight train yesterday, died this morning.

Mr. Frederick Markham and Miss Adie Edwards were recently married at the First Baptist Church at 9 o'clock last night. Both parties are well known here, and it was a surprise marriage. Rev. C. J. Thompson, pastor of the church, officiated.

About twenty of the Knights of Pythias went over to Chapel Hill last night and attended a banquet given there by that order.

Tobacco receipts continue good, with no change in prices. Indications are that a full crop will be planted through this season.

MEDICAL STUDENT DEAD.
Blood Poison Followed Anatomical Work on a Cadaver.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTE, N. C., January 30.—After waging an unequal struggle against death for two weeks, O. B. McLeod, of Lumberton, the North Carolina Medical College student who with his roommate, J. M. Boyce, was infected with septicemia from dissecting a cadaver, died this morning at 8 o'clock.

McLeod had an abrasion on his hand, and through this the poison from the corpse was conveyed to his blood, blood poisoning developing in twenty-four hours. Every remedy known to medical science, including the now famous formalin treatment, was tried, but in vain. The remains of the deceased student reached Charlotte this afternoon and will be taken through to his home to-morrow for interment. It was accompanied by several fellow students, who acted as an escort.

PERSONAL MAGNETISM

A College, Chartered Under State Laws, With a Capital of $100,000, for the Purpose of Teaching Personal Magnetism and Hypnotism by Correspondence.

EVERYBODY MAY NOW LEARN

Ten Thousand Copies of a Valuable
Work on These Sciences to Be Given Away to Advertise the College.

The American College of Sciences of Philadelphia, Pa., is a novel institution. It is chartered under State laws, with a capital of $100,000, for the purpose of teaching Personal Magnetism, Hypnotism, Magnetic Healing, etc., by correspondence.

At an expense of over $6,000 the college has issued a remarkable work on these sciences, 10,000 copies of which will be given away absolutely free. The book is elegantly illustrated with the most expensive engravings, and it is decidedly the finest and most comprehensive work of its kind ever published. It is the product of the combined talent of thirty distinguished hypnotic specialists and scientists. It thoroughly explains all the hidden secrets of Personal Magnetism, Hypnotism, Magnetic Healing, etc., and makes many startling disclosures in regard to the use and possibilities of this secret power.

The college absolutely guarantees that any one can learn these sciences in a few days at home, and use the power which the reporter solicited eight-four.

The replies received were more than sufficient to convince the most skeptical in regard to the wonderful power derived from the mighty power. There were absolutely no failures. All had learned to use the power of their own minds. The following extracts are taken at random from the letters, for the benefit of readers:

Mr. Schneider, 143 Avon Street, La Crosse, Wis., writes: "Hypnotism truly reveals the secrets of life and the mysteries of nature. I consider it a most valuable for those who wish to get the most out of life; to those who wish to achieve success in the full measure of their possibilities."

Mrs. Effie M. Watson, Martinsville, Ind., writes: "Hypnotism opens the road to health, happiness and prosperity. It should be studied by every one. I would not part with my knowledge of it for any amount. The instructions have developed within me a force of character, an ability to influence and control people that I did not dream of before."

W. C. Cline, M. D., Springfield, Ohio, writes: "I have used the methods of hypnotism taught by the American College of Sciences in two cases of difficult surgical operations with perfect success. It is a complete anesthetic, and preferable to chloroform or ether. I acquired a practical knowledge of hypnotism in less than three days. The book is grand."

Rev. T. W. Burdett, Idaho City, Idaho, writes: "I have cured a number of chronic cases of rheumatism, dyspepsia and paralysis of long standing; have not had a single failure. I consider a knowledge of Personal Magnetism invaluable. The book has greatly increased my own power."

Dr. W. P. Kennelcutt, 528 State Street, Birmingham, N. Y., writes: "I had long suffered from nervous prostration, dyspepsia. My case baffled all medical skill. I studied hypnotism from the American College of Sciences, and tried it upon myself with surprising results. One week my stomach was better than it had been in thirty years; I could eat anything without the slightest distress, and sleep all night; have hypnotized a number of others."

The first 10,000 persons who write to the American College of Sciences will receive absolutely free of charge a copy of the book. The instructions have developed within me a force of character, an ability to influence and control people that I did not dream of before."

THE SAME MOMENT, IS IMPROVING SLOWLY, AND IS BELIEVED TO BE OUT OF DANGER.

IN RECEIVER'S HANDS

Dodson Bros. Tobacco Co., on Petition of J. D. Patton & Co., of Richmond.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., January 30.—John L. King, of Greensboro, has been appointed receiver of the Dodson Bros. Tobacco Company, at Pilot Mountain.

This company was thrown into the hands of receivers by the firm of J. D. Patton and Company, of Richmond. Mr. King has taken charge of the factory. Dodson Brothers have been manufacturing tobacco for a number of years, and it was the impression generally that they were doing a large and successful business.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., January 30.—Mr. E. R. Brown and Miss Mary Elmer, of Churchwood, Va., were united in marriage at Home Jones at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The ceremony was performed in the parlor in the presence of several friends by Rev. W. R. Ware.

The couple claimed that there was no objection to the marriage, that they just came here to be romantic. The groom is telegraph operator for the Norfolk and Western at Churchwood. The couple returned home to-day.

Rutherfordford's Dispensary.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RUTHERFORDTON, N. C., Jan. 30.—Mr. W. A. Rucker, manager of the Rutherfordford Dispensary, informs your correspondent that the institution made a net profit of $3,493.93 last year. Half of this, $1,746.96, he says, was paid to the town of Rutherfordford. The second half was paid on the courthouse. There is no way of getting around the fact that the dispensary has been doing a flourishing business. Whether it has benefited the town or not is for the inhabitants to say.

Afraid to Leave Home.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RUTHERFORDTON, N. C., Jan. 30.—Joe Smalley, who eloped with Mrs. Elmer, is at home on Broad River in the lot of his house, and has a double-barreled shotgun, a bowie knife and other implements of a like nature. He dares anybody to lay hands on him. Smalley is said to be simply afraid to leave home on account of Mr. Clement. He thinks should he attempt to leave Clement will shoot him.

RICH, BUT IS ACCUSED

Wealthy Negro Was Placed Under Arrest Yesterday.

IS CHARGED WITH THEFT

Barrels of Flour and Meal Belonging to Mayor, Denoon & Co. Are Discovered in His House—Denies His Guilt.

Joseph Gardner, one of the wealthiest and best known negroes in Richmond, was arrested yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock by Patrolman Wyatt on a warrant charging him with stealing three barrels of the best flour and one sack of fine meal, the property of Mayo, Denoon and Company, of No. 110 East Cary Street. All of the goods were recovered and are now in the possession of the authorities, a large dray belonging to the losing firm having been employed in removing them from the house of the negro to the Second Station. Almost immediately after Gardner was arrested, Mr. Harry Smith, the well known attorney, called at the station and had a long conference with the negro, he having been retained to defend him when the case goes to trial in the Police Court this morning.

The negro has never been arrested on a charge of theft. Gardner was asked for a statement regarding the trouble in which he finds himself. Other than deny his guilt the negro would say little.

In reply to a direct question as to how he came in possession of the goods found in his house, Gardner said that a man, a negro man, left them there last week while he was not at home. He was to pay this party for the goods one day this week, but the amount agreed upon could not be ascertained, the negro refusing to say more.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. George W. Mayo, member of the firm, appeared at the Second Police Station, stating that he had reason to believe that several barrels of flour which had been stolen from his house were in the possession of Gardner, who resided in Horse Alley, a settlement in the vicinity of Canal, Byrd, Eleventh and Tenth Streets. He wished a search warrant issued and served at once.

The request being complied with, the paper was placed in the hands of Patrolman Wyatt, and with Mr. Mayo he went to the house in question. The warrant was served, and it required only a few minutes for the two men to locate the missing goods. They were carefully stored away in one of the rear rooms of the dwelling.

On this showing the policeman placed Gardner under arrest on a charge of having stolen them. The goods were then carried to the station, and this morning will be used as evidence against the negro.

Until some months ago the negro was the proprietor of a small grocery store on Byrd Street, but for some reason suddenly retired from business.

Despite the fact the negro has retained legal advice and will make a stubborn fight, the officers are confident of securing a conviction, although it is not known just what evidence Mr. Mayo has against the negro. How he came by the knowledge to chloroform the arrest of Gardner is not known.

SIDEWALK ORDINANCE

Merchants Fighting it Vigorously in City of Danville.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., January 30.—A committee of the merchants appeared before the Ordinance Committee of the City Council to-night and asked them to repeal the recently-enacted ordinance preventing the display of goods on the sidewalks in front of their stores. The matter has caused a great deal of complaint from the merchants, who have heretofore displayed their goods indiscriminately and a strenuous effort will be made by the merchants to have it repealed. The citizens generally sustain the actions of the Council and want the ordinance to remain in force.

LODGED IN JAIL

Leslie Hicks Arrested on the Charge of Lunacy—Good Price for Tobacco.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LOUISA, VA., Jan. 30.—Leslie Hicks, a young white man, was taken into custody yesterday evening near Bell's X Roads by Sheriff J. F. Bickers and is now lodged in the county jail, charged with lunacy.

Young Hicks is a son of Wesley Hicks, who so brutally murdered his son-in-law, Milton Brown, last spring and was hanged for the crime the third of last October.

Several years ago Leslie Hicks was indicted and tried by a jury in the Louisa County Court for attempted criminal assault, but upon a plea of insanity was sent to the asylum at Staunton. Instead of the State prison, it seems that several months ago he was released from

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINCHESTER, VA., January 30.—In the Shenandoah County Circuit Court this afternoon Judge Thomas W. Harrison issued a rule against the Southern and Baltimore and Ohio Railroads to show cause why they should not be fined for contempt. The rule was issued upon application of Hon. John M. Steek, City Solicitor of Winchester, as the result of the two roads not effecting proper connection at Strasburg Junction, as ordered at a former term of the same court. Several nights since the Winchester Common Council passed a resolution instructing the City Solicitor to enter the suit as was done to-day.

CHATHAM, VA., January 30.—Several cases of smallpox have broken out near Chatham, in the southern part of the county. Chairman Fuller, of the Board of Supervisors, ordered a district in Tunstall's township quarantined. This is the first action taken by the officials of the county. The county Board of Health have ordered to take any part unless the supervisors will compensate them, which they refused to do by a majority vote of the body more than one year ago.

The Last Day of This Month Shall End With Us in the Midst of a Whirlwind of Bargains.

BUSINESS, you know, is like everything else—it has its period of sunshine and its stretches of shadow—the most bustling of all months has barely passed away—what is usually the dulllest time of the year starts in about now. But it shan't be at this store. We shall set about enlivening from the onset. Others may wait a while longer and continue to eke out a minimum of sales. We prefer to turn stock into cash. We are planning for spring already. To-day the ball starts, and its rolling will be a perpetual affair.

First of all, we are going to prepare for our semi-annual inventory, WHICH MEANS THAT STOCK MUST BE REDUCED TO ITS LOWEST POSSIBILITY. EVERYTHING THAT CAN BE MUST BE GOTTEN RID OF BEFORE THIS HERCULEAN TASK IS BEGUN. We are going to start with the small lots to-day. Remnants they may be called, embracing anything broken in sizes and assortments, and offer same TO-DAY ONLY at
